BENEFICE DATA PRIVACY NOTICE

The Parochial Church Council (PCC) of St. Botolph's, Shepshed & The Parochial Church Council (PCC) of St. James' The Greater, Oaks-in-Charnwood

1. Your personal data – what is it?

Personal data relates to a living individual who can be identified from that data. Identification can be by the information alone or in conjunction with any other information in the data controller's possession or likely to come into such possession. The processing of personal data is governed by the General Data Protection Regulation (the "GDPR").

2. Who are we?

The PCC of St Botolph's, Shepshed & the PCC of St. James' The Greater, Oaks-in-Charnwood (hereinafter referred to as the PCC's) are the data controller (contact details below). This means the PCC's decide how your personal data is processed and for what purposes.

3. How do we process your personal data?

The PCC 's comply with their obligations under the "GDPR" by keeping personal data up to date; by storing and destroying it securely; by not collecting or retaining excessive amounts of data; by protecting personal data from loss, misuse, unauthorised access and disclosure and by ensuring that appropriate technical measures are in place to protect personal data.

We use your personal data for the following purposes: -

- To enable us to provide a voluntary service for the benefit of the public in a particular geographical area as specified in our constitution;
- To administer membership records;
- To fundraise and promote the interests of the charity;
- To manage our employees and volunteers;
- To maintain our own accounts and records (including the processing of gift aid applications);
- To inform you of news, events, activities and services running at St Botolph's and St. James'.
- To operate the Shepshed & Oaks web site and deliver the services that individuals have requested.

4. What is the legal basis for processing your personal data?

- Explicit consent of the data subject so that we can keep you informed by email, text or other electronic method about news, events, activities and services and keep you informed about diocesan events.

4. What is the legal basis for processing your personal data? (Cont'd ...

- Processing is necessary for carrying out legal obligations in relation to Gift Aid or under employment, social security or social protection law, or a collective agreement;
- Processing is carried out by a not-for-profit body with a political, philosophical, religious or trade union aim provided: -
 - the processing relates only to members or former members (or those who have regular contact with it in connection with those purposes); and
 - there is no disclosure to a third party without consent.
- Processing is necessary for pastoral care purposes as part of our legitimate interests

5. Sharing your personal data

Your personal data will be treated as strictly confidential and will only be shared with other members of the church in order to carry out a service to other church members or for purposes connected with the church. We will only share your data with third parties outside of the parish with your consent.

6. How long do we keep your personal data¹?

We keep data in accordance with the guidance set out in the guide "Keep or Bin: Care of Your Parish Records" which is available from the Church of England website [see footnote for link].

Specifically, we retain electoral roll data while it is still current; gift aid declarations and associated paperwork for up to 6 years after the calendar year to which they relate; and parish registers (baptisms, marriages, funerals) permanently. Our database is retained until death or the receipt of a request to delete information.

7. Your rights and your personal data

Unless subject to an exemption under the GDPR, you have the following rights with respect to your personal data: -

- The right to request a copy of your personal data which the PCC's hold about you;
- The right to request that the PCC's correct any personal data if it is found to be inaccurate or out of date;
- The right to request your personal data is erased where it is no longer necessary for the PCC's to retain such data;
- The right to withdraw your consent to the processing at any time

¹ Details about retention periods can currently be found in the Record Management Guides located on the Church of England website at: - <https://www.churchofengland.org/more/libraries-and-archives/records-management-guides>
